

The Reverse Name 10 animals that could possibly only be seen in zoos in 100 years time.	Questions The answer is “zoo”...what are the five questions?	Brainstorming What are the 10 most important things you have to consider if you are running a zoo?	Disadvantages Animals do not always want to be kept in a zoo. List the disadvantages.	Different Uses Find ten (10) uses for the old lion cage.
The Alphabet Compile an original and interesting “Zoo” A to Z.	Alternatives Think of three different ways you could enter the leopard enclosure without being attacked?	Risk-Taking Explain why you think it might be better to be: a lion or a tiger. Give 3 reasons.	Variations How many original ways can you feed fish to the seals in order to keep them entertained?	The Picture Use the squiggle to help draw a zoo animal.
The Invention Design a state of the art enclosure for a zoo animal of your choice.	Prediction Predict what a zoo will look like and function like in 100 years time.	Ridiculous One of your hippos needs its teeth cleaned. Devise a method for achieving this.	Construction Draw a detailed map or build a small model of your zoo. Label all the important areas.	What If? Several zoo animals had the habits and behaviours of people?
Interpretation “Zoo Animals in Amazing Escape.” Create a dramatic story for this headline.	Brick Wall All zoos should be immediately closed. Consider All Factors.	Combinations Cross a musical instrument and a zoo animal. Name it and describe its characteristics.	BAR BIGGER, ADD, REPLACE B.A.R. a hippos canines. Draw a picture and label parts.	Problem Solving You have to justify why your zoo should remain open to the public. List ten good reasons and explain each.