

Ko Tōku Marae Tēnei

nā Manu Te Awa ngā kupu

nā George Upu te rangi

Tahi, Rua, Toru, Whā.

Ko tōku marae tēnei

He wāhi pōwhiri – pōwhiri

Ko tōku marae tēnei

He wāhi whaikōrero – whaikōrero

He wāhi waiata

He wāhi hongī

He wāhi manaaki

He wāhi tākarō hoki

Ko tōku marae tēnei.

[Repeat verse]

He wāhi tākarō hoki

Ko tōku marae tēnei.

Tūturu whakawhiti whakamaua kia tina

Hui e Taiki e.

Ko Tōku Marae Tēnei (translates as This is my marae)

Words by Manu Te Awa

Tune by George Upu

One, Two, Three, Four

This is my marae (home)

It is a place of welcome

This is my marae

It is a place of whaikorero (formal speech making)

A place for singing

A place where we hongi (traditional greeting custom)

A place of hospitality

A place to play

This is my marae.

A place to play

This is my marae.

Let us uphold the message in this song.

In unison as one.
